It's not that he'd get a yellow card. It's that he'd continue to get yellow cards (and sent off), until he removed it.

So unless England wanted to do that, and exclusively get their captain sent off. Which would be a weird, weak protest. There's no point.

UK Census: Leicester and Birmingham have become the first UK cities to have "minority majorities".

In England's second city, white people make up 48.6% of the population.

"5.5 million drop in the number of Christians and a 44% rise in the number of people following Islam."

This is a declaration of war on farmers.

Netherlands to close up to 3,000 farms to comply with EU rules

Government tries to cut down on nitrogen pollution in a move set to reignite tensions with farmers who say the industry is unfairly targeted

By James Crisp, EU Editor
28 November 2022 • 4:02pm

The Dutch government plans to buy and close down up to 3,000 farms near environmentally sensitive areas to comply with EU nature preservation rules.

The Netherlands is attempting to cut down its nitrogen pollution and will push ahead with compulsory purchases if not enough farms take up the offer voluntarily.

It's not that he'd get a yellow card. It's that he'd continue to get yellow cards (and sent off), until he removed it.

So unless England wanted to do that, and exclusively get their captain sent off. Which would be a weird, weak protest. There's no point.

The fact that they immediately caved because (God forbid) Harry Kane might get a yellow card, underscores yet again how all the sanctimonious virtue signaling is empty nonsense.

How about just abandon it entirely and concentrate on the actual football instead?

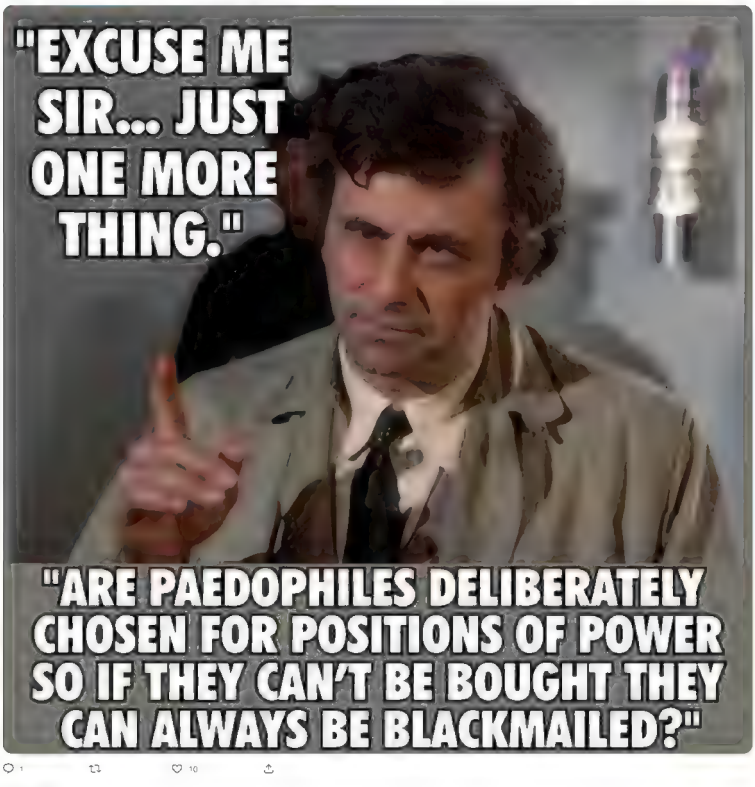
To me it's like abstract art. A few blobs of paint or whatever. It's devoid of craft, that is, there is no mastery of the medium, just "skipping" to art, which is why it's trash.



This is the same thing. Celebrity without being interesting. Skipping straight to famous.

Because Nige said "white" and not "white British," he got fact checked by the BBC.

This of course doesn't change the fact that only 37% of London is "white British," but most just read the headline & believe Nigel's wider point was debunked. It wasn't.

Its almost as if they just counted flu as Covid to up the Project Fear and flog more clot shots to the tax payer. Luckily I still have a working immune system, unlike the vaxxed sickies who all seem to be getting ill, but are thankful as it "could have been worse" without.

So many people are getting sick at work. Young people getting way more sick from a flu than they should.

This is only the beginning.

What are they even kneeling for at this point? Nobody can even specifically say. The USA isn't even kneeling, and that's how it all started. It's just really odd.

This is a declaration of war on farmers.

Netherlands to close up to 3,000 farms to comply with EU rules

Government tries to cut down on nitrogen pollution in a move set to reignite tensions with farmers who say the industry is unfairly targeted

By James Crisp, [illegible]
28 November 2022 • 4:02pm

The Dutch government plans to buy and close down up to 3,000 farms near environmentally sensitive areas to comply with EU nature preservation rules.

The Netherlands is attempting to cut down its nitrogen pollution and will push ahead with compulsory purchases if not enough farms take up the offer voluntarily.

What are they even kneeling for at this point? Nobody can even specifically say. The USA isn't even kneeling, and that's how it all started. It's just really odd.

Remember when the hospitals were full of people dying of COVID, yet the nurses still had time to plan and perform TikTok dance routines, and then we were all told to stand outside our front doors once a week applauding them while banging pots and pans?

That wasn't weird.

Elon taking over Twitter only to realize much of it is still controlled by deep state frontmen.

Similar to when Trump was elected.

Matt Taibbi @mtaibbi 22h

We can now tell you part of the reason why. On Tuesday, Twitter Deputy General Counsel (and former FBI General Counsel) Jim Baker was fired. Among the reasons? Vetting the first batch of "Twitter Files" without knowledge of new management.

A so, The European Commission acts both as the EU's executive arm and a so the legislative initiator, and they have the power parliament that chooses who heads up that stuff member states and the agreements over controversial issues and policies. It acts as a "collective head of state" and ratifies important documents (for example, international agreements and treaties).[71] Tasks for the president of the European Council are ensuring the external representation of the EU,[72] driving consensus and resolving divergences among member states, both during meetings of the European Council and over the periods between them. The European Council should not be mistaken for the Council of Europe, an international organisation independent of the EU and based in Strasbourg.

The European Commission acts both as the EU's executive arm, responsible for the day-to-day running of the EU, and also the legislative initiator, with the sole power to propose laws for debate.[73][74][75] The commission is 'guardian of the Treaties' and is responsible for their efficient operation and policing.[76] It has 27 European commissioners for different areas of policy, one from each member state, though commissioners are bound to represent the interests of the EU as a whole rather than their home state. The leader of the 27 is the president of the European Commission (presently Ursula von der Leyen for 2019–2024), proposed by the European Council, following and taking into account the result of the European elections, and is then elected by the European Parliament.[77] The President retains, as the leader responsible for the entire cabinet, the final say in accepting or rejecting a candidate submitted for a given portfolio by a member state, and oversees the commission's permanent civil service. After the President, the most prominent commissioner is the high representative of the union for foreign affairs and security policy, who is ex-officio a vice-president of the European Commission and is also chosen by the European Council.[78] The other 26 commissioners are subsequently appointed by the Council of the European Union in agreement with the nominated president. The 27 commissioners as a single body are subject to approval (or otherwise) by vote of the European Parliament. All commissioners are first nominated by the government of the respective member state.[79]

Netherlands to close up to 3,000 farms to comply with EU rules

Government tries to cut down on nitrogen pollution in a move set to reignite tensions with farmers who say the industry is unfairly targeted

By James Crisp, [illegible]
28 November 2022 • 4.02pm

The Dutch government plans to buy and close down up to 3,000 farms near environmentally sensitive areas to comply with EU nature preservation rules.

The Netherlands is attempting to cut down its nitrogen pollution and will push ahead with compulsory purchases if not enough farms take up the offer voluntarily.

Netherlands to close up to 3,000 farms to comply with EU rules

Government tries to cut down on nitrogen pollution in a move set to reignite tensions with farmers who say the industry is unfairly targeted

By James Crisp, [illegible]

28 November 2022 • 4.02pm

The Dutch government plans to buy and close down up to 3,000 farms near environmentally sensitive areas to comply with EU nature preservation rules.

The Netherlands is attempting to cut down its nitrogen pollution and will push ahead with compulsory purchases if not enough farms take up the offer voluntarily.

Being surprised at Elon Musk being booed on stage in San Francisco is like being surprised at the demon in the Exorcist girl's head being perturbed by the presence of Catholic priests.

To me t's xe abstract art. A few p ops of paint or whatever. It's devoid of craft, that is, there is no mastery of the medium, just "skipping" to art, which is why it's trash.

Th s is the same thing. Celebrity w thout being interesting. Skipping straight to famous

Netherlands to close up to 3,000 farms to comply with EU rules

Government tries to cut down on nitrogen pollution in a move set to reignite tensions with farmers who say the industry is unfairly targeted

By James Crisp, EU [illegible]
28 November 2022 • 4:02pm

The Dutch government plans to buy and close down up to 3,000 farms near environmentally sensitive areas to comply with EU nature preservation rules.

The Netherlands is attempting to cut down its nitrogen pollution and will push ahead with compulsory purchases if not enough farms take up the offer voluntarily.

A Suspension for breaking rules vs Banned (for not breaking rules)

Two different things.

But it's fun to watch

In recent decades, the science on pedophilia has improved. One of the most significant findings is that pedophilia is likely determined in the womb, though environmental factors may influence whether someone acts on an urge to abuse.

Chappelle's new show has 8.5 on IMDB (where user reviews are allowed) yet just 17% on Rotten Tomatoes (where all reviews are by "critics").

Americans are tired of being lectured by pedantic 'woke' idiots about what they're allowed to laugh at.

And lets face it, even if they use some artsy fartsy metrics, WHO CARES?
People are looking for a good/fun movie, not a liberal arts project.

How brave of CNN, a multi-billion dollar corporation, to threaten a private citizen. twitter.com/kyletblaine/st

CNN's not publishing "HanAholeSolo's" name because he is a private citizen who has issued an extensive statement of apology, showed his remorse by saying he has taken down all his offending posts, and because he said he is not going to repeat this ugly behavior on social media again. In addition, he said his statement could serve as an example to others not to do the same.

This is the news article CNN used to break out this story http://archive.is/mfz2P

CNN reserves the right to publish his identity should any of that change.

CBS News deleted a "fact check" of Trump's border wall speech on Tuesday night which said the situation with migrant women being raped while illegally crossing our southern border is even worse than he described.

Fact check: 1 in 3 women sexually assaulted while traveling to cross the border

CLAIM: The president claimed one in three women have been sexually assaulted traveling to the border.

FACT CHECK: Between 60 percent and 80 percent of female migrants traveling through Mexico are raped along the way, Amnesty International estimates.

Funny old world where "civil liberties groups" are the ones lobbying for censorship of free speech, isn't it?

Since Mr Musk bought the social media site in October, he has fired about half of its staff and attempted a rollout of Twitter's paid-for verification feature before putting it on pause. The feature was relaunched last week.

Civil liberties groups have also criticised his approach to content moderation, accusing him of taking steps that will increase hate speech and misinformation.

On Friday, Mr Musk was condemned by the United Nations and European Union over Twitter's decision to suspend some journalists who cover the social media firm.

Snopes is trying to "fact check" a satire site into oblivion.

Only authoritarians are afraid of humor.

Tradueix el tuit

The Babylon Bee

Readers of the Bee,

We apologize for the length of this note, but we wanted to bring something important to your attention. Last week, Snopes fact-checked us again. We're pretty used to that. But this time, instead of merely rating the article "false," they questioned whether our work qualifies as satire, and even went so far as to suggest that we were deliberately deceiving our readers. Basically, they treated us as a source of intentionally misleading fake news, rather than as the legitimate, well-known satire publication that we are. This is a big deal.

As you know, fake news—which is distinguished from satire by its intent to mislead—was widely considered a serious issue in the last election cycle. As a result, social media networks like Facebook began partnering with fact-checkers to try and limit the distribution of fake news on their platforms. Snopes was one of them. At one point, a piece of ours was rated "false" by Snopes, prompting Facebook to threaten us with limitations and demonetization. We made a stink about this, and after some media attention shed light on the problem, Facebook apologized for their handling of the matter and admitted that satire is not the same as fake news.

We came out on top last time, but this latest smear from Snopes is both dishonest and disconcerting. We have no choice but to take it very seriously. For better or worse, the media, the public, and social networks all look to Snopes for authoritative answers. By lumping us in with fake news and questioning whether we really qualify as satire, Snopes appears to be actively engaged in an effort to discredit and deplatform us. While we wish it wasn't necessary, we have retained a law firm to represent us in this matter.

We came out on top last time, but this latest smear from Snopes is both dishonest and disconcerting. We have no choice but to take it very seriously. For better or worse, the media, the public, and social networks all look to Snopes for authoritative answers. By lumping us in with fake news and questioning whether we really qualify as satire, Snopes appears to be actively engaged in an effort to discredit and deplatform us. While we wish it wasn't necessary, we have retained a law firm to represent us in this matter.

The Babylon Bee

Readers of the Bee,

We apologize for the length of this note, but we wanted to bring something important to your attention. Last week, Snopes fact-checked us again. We're pretty used to that. But this time, instead of merely rating the article "false," they questioned whether our work qualifies as satire, and even went so far as to suggest that we were deliberately deceiving our readers. Basically, they treated us as a source of intentionally misleading fake news, rather than as the legitimate, well-known satire publication that we are. This is a big deal.

As you know, fake news—which is distinguished from satire by its intent to mislead—was widely considered a serious issue in the last election cycle. As a result, social media networks like Facebook began partnering with fact-checkers to try and limit the distribution of fake news on their platforms. Snopes was one of them. At one point, a piece of ours was rated "false" by Snopes, prompting Facebook to threaten us with limitations and demonetization. We made a stink about this, and after some media attention shed light on the problem, Facebook apologized for their handling of the matter and admitted that satire is not the same as fake news.

Snopes is trying to "fact check" a satire site into oblivion.

Only authoritarians are afraid of humor.

The Babylon Bee

Readers of the Bee,

We apologize for the length of this note, but we wanted to bring something important to your attention. Last week, Snopes fact-checked us again. We're pretty used to that. But this time, instead of merely rating the article "false," they questioned whether our work qualifies as satire, and even went so far as to suggest that we were deliberately deceiving our readers. Basically, they treated us as a source of intentionally misleading fake news, rather than as the legitimate, well-known satire publication that we are. This is a big deal.

As you know, fake news—which is distinguished from satire by its intent to mislead—was widely considered a serious issue in the last election cycle. As a result, social media networks like Facebook began partnering with fact-checkers to try and limit the distribution of fake news on their platforms. Snopes was one of them. At one point, a piece of ours was rated "false" by Snopes, prompting Facebook to threaten us with limitations and demonetization. We made a stink about this, and after some media attention shed light on the problem, Facebook apologized for their handling of the matter and admitted that satire is not the same as fake news.

We came out on top last time, but this latest smear from Snopes is both dishonest and disconcerting. We have no choice but to take it very seriously. For better or worse, the media, the public, and social networks all look to Snopes for authoritative answers. By lumping us in with fake news and questioning whether we really qualify as satire, Snopes appears to be actively engaged in an effort to discredit and deplatform us. While we wish it wasn't necessary, we have retained a law firm to represent us in this matter.

The Babylon Bee

Readers of the Bee,

We apologize for the length of this note, but we wanted to bring something important to your attention. Last week, Snopes fact-checked us again. We're pretty used to that. But this time, instead of merely rating the article "false," they questioned whether our work qualifies as satire, and even went so far as to suggest that we were deliberately deceiving our readers. Basically, they treated us as a source of intentionally misleading fake news, rather than as the legitimate, well-known satire publication that we are. This is a big deal.

As you know, fake news—which is distinguished from satire by its intent to mislead—was widely considered a serious issue in the last election cycle. As a result, social media networks like Facebook began partnering with fact-checkers to try and limit the distribution of fake news on their platforms. Snopes was one of them. At one point, a piece of ours was rated "false" by Snopes, prompting Facebook to threaten us with limitations and demonetization. We made a stink about this, and after some media attention shed light on the problem, Facebook apologized for their handling of the matter and admitted that satire is not the same as fake news.

We came out on top last time, but this latest smear from Snopes is both dishonest and disconcerting. We have no choice but to take it very seriously. For better or worse, the media, the public, and social networks all look to Snopes for authoritative answers. By lumping us in with fake news and questioning whether we really qualify as satire, Snopes appears to be actively engaged in an effort to discredit and deplatform us. While we wish it wasn't necessary, we have retained a law firm to represent us in this matter.

Snopes is trying to "fact check" a satire site into oblivion.

The Babylon Bee

Readers of the Bee,

We apologize for the length of this note, but we wanted to bring something important to your attention. Last week, Snopes fact-checked us again. We're pretty used to that. But this time, instead of merely rating the article "false," they questioned whether our work qualifies as satire, and even went so far as to suggest that we were deliberately deceiving our readers. Basically, they treated us as a source of intentionally misleading fake news, rather than as the legitimate, well-known satire publication that we are. This is a big deal.

As you know, fake news—which is distinguished from satire by its intent to mislead—was widely considered a serious issue in the last election cycle. As a result, social media networks like Facebook began partnering with fact-checkers to try and limit the distribution of fake news on their platforms. Snopes was one of them. At one point, a piece of ours was rated "false" by Snopes, prompting Facebook to threaten us with limitations and demonetization. We made a stink about this, and after some media attention shed light on the problem, Facebook apologized for their handling of the matter and admitted that satire is not the same as fake news.

We came out on top last time, but this latest smear from Snopes is both dishonest and disconcerting. We have no choice but to take it very seriously. For better or worse, the media, the public, and social networks all look to Snopes for authoritative answers. By lumping us in with fake news and questioning whether we really qualify as satire, Snopes appears to be actively engaged in an effort to discredit and deplatform us. While we wish it wasn't necessary, we have retained a law firm to represent us in this matter.

Daily Beast harassed Pamela Geller's daughters, exposing them to very real danger (Geller has been subjected to numerous serious death threats from Islamic terrorists)

Daily Beast wanted to do a "profile piece" on me. They can shove it.

Nobody else in media should talk to them.

2 They did not receive death threats like Geller's daughters do
3 She was fired None of the people involved with doxing Geller has

Daily Beast harassed Pamela Geller's daughters, exposing them to very real danger (Geller has been subjected to numerous serious death threats from Islamic terrorists)

Daily Beast wanted to do a "profile piece" on me. They can shove it.

Daily Beast harassed Pamela Geller's daughters, exposing them to very real danger (Geller has been subjected to numerous serious death threats from Islamic terrorists)

Daily Beast wanted to do a "profile piece" on me. They can shove it.

Nobody else in media should talk to them.

Daily Beast harassed Pamela Geller's daughters, exposing them to very real danger (Geller has been subjected to numerous serious death threats from Islamic terrorists)

Daily Beast wanted to do a "profile piece" on me. They can shove it.

Nobody else in media should talk to them.

Daily Beast harassed Pamela Geller's daughters, exposing them to very real danger (Geller has been subjected to numerous serious death threats from Islamic terrorists)

Daily Beast wanted to do a "profile piece" on me. They can shove it.

Nobody else in media should talk to them.

So this Daily Beast reporter is now knocking on people's doors in a rural village where I used to live to try to find people I went to school with. Presumably, he has got hold of old address and school records. Creepy. Stalkerish. Bizarre.

These conservatives are the same people that used to say you can't say you're trans if you don't make "any effort" to look like you "belong" to the gender you identify as. They're not even using excuses like that anymore to justify their hatred, they're just openly transphobic

Me telling this person they have something really wrong with them that they need to fix mentally, not physically, is the best advice given to them

But to the lgbtq community it's "problematic" to try and help them mentally

8.) Enlightenment Mudra (Uttarabodhi)

Healing: This Mudra can evoke enlightenment, a deeper sense of spiritual awareness and consciousness. It can also help you to release fears or blockages and can calm nerves. Also good for stage fright.

Position: Use both hands and interlock them together, keeping the index fingers and thumbs straight. Extend the touching thumbs and index fingers straight so they are opposite each other.

I am able to visit Afghanistan unvaccinated.

Not America.

Despite the fact the vaccine doesn't even prevent transmission.

Cringe. Black Lives Matter is a proven scam. Crap result too, maybe should have concentrated on the game.

What are they even kneeling for at this point? Nobody can even specifically say. The USA isn't even kneeling, and that's how it all started. It's just really odd

Looks like a protest against discrimination and suppressed diversity in Sadi Arabia. If that is the case, the World Cup was the perfect place to do it. BLM doesn't own kneeling.

Germany players covered their mouths before their match against Japan

It was a response to Fifa's threat of players being booked for wearing the OneLove armband

"Armband or no armband, we stand by our position."

The possible tyranny of following net zero is way more terrifying, than the the world being a little bit warmer (until it decides to get colder again)

It's now clear #COVID19 natural immunity is superior to #vaccine immunity, by ALOT. There's no science justification for #vax proof if a person had prior infection. @CDCDirector @POTUS must follow the science. If no previous infection? Get vaccinated! bit.ly/3mEag2V

Someone at the BBC is getting fired. They accidentally interviewed an honest doctor.

"We've got one that can see!"

Nigel Farage @Nigel_Farage · Jan 13

This is significant, watch this clip

On the BBC, of all places, a demand for a real investigation into whether vaccine harms are contributing to excess deaths

Yeh, it was great. I can't believe they actually just let it all play out. It was actually suspenseful, had me on the edge of my seat wondering "damn, they're going to cut this off, when are they going to cut this off?"

Loved every minute of it

We've literally been saying this for nearly 3 years and NOW they admit it.

Opinion | We are overcounting covid deaths and hospitalizations. That's a problem.

By Leana S. Wen

Medical expert says number of COVID deaths have been OVER COUNTED

Dr Leana Wen says the number of deaths attributed to COVID-19 may be greater than the number of people actually dying from the virus

One of the earliest signs it was a con was the definition of a 'covid death', 'death of any cause within 28 days of a positive test' After a few months they should've had a clear pathway to definitively state a covid death but this exaggerated definition is still being used

Amazon likely cancelling Clarkson's Farm and the Grand Tour in response to the offended mob yet another example of how the woke mind virus destroys what's left of genuinely unbridled, funny entertainment.

Its rampant quest to banalize everything continues to reap dividends.

Just another false narrative spread by the anti-vaxxer movement that vaccine causes heart attacks. Trouble for them, when you look at the data it proves that simply isn't the case

It's really not, people have always died of heart attacks.

See data for UK & compare 2019 (pre Covid 19 with now) no real obvious spike or change in numbers.

I hope that makes things less 'scary' for for you.

- £1 trillion for 'climate reparations' sent to Africa.

- £7 million a day to house illegal migrants in 4/5 star hotels.

- £5 billion to prolong a war 1500 miles away.

Meanwhile, Brits will struggle to pay their heating bill this winter, and all their taxes are going UP.

Jamie Lee Curtis clarifies THAT artwork on her wall by revealing it's an image of a naked child taken by the kid's mother "playing" in a tub of water, which was then gifted to Curtis.

Well, that explains it then. Totally normal. I prefer landscapes.

Last week I posted a picture of some chairs that included a photograph on the wall by an artist that was gifted to me 20 years ago. I understand it has disturbed some people. As I have said, I am a truth teller so here's the truth. It's a picture of a child, taken by her mother, of her playing in their backyard in a tub of water. Nothing more, nothing less. I took down the post because I didn't want to keep something up that upset anyone.

That's a pretty bizarre thing to hang on the wall

I suppose you could say there are lots of cherubs in old paintings and frescos, but there's nothing angelic about this. The child is jammed into what appears to be a plastic tote like a turkey being defrosted. It's very strange

Remember: When it's hot in summer, that's proof of global warming. And when it's cold and snows in winter, that's also proof of global warming.

UK is no longer a cold country and must adapt to heat, say climate scientists
Experts call on UK officials to prepare for periods of extreme heat or risk thousands of excess deaths

I would be a tad careful with this narrative as some forecast models show the potential of a very mild christmas day (but not current model run). naturally that will would be used to push the narrative and arctic warming 85 explanation for cold

No, literally no one says that. Because they realised it was simply global warming. They call it climate change, specifically man made climate change, because there are more extremes. You can't possibly think 40° summers in the uk are norma

Jordan Peterson calls on "The West" to "get their act together" and overthrow the Iranian government in the name of opposing "misogyny." Apparently Jordan Peterson is one of those guys who should just stay embroiled in pronoun controversies 24/7

Islam looking more and more appealing with each passing day.

Gender-neutral God to be considered by Church of England

Move has been criticised by conservatives, who have warned that 'male and female imagery is not interchangeable'

By Gabriella Swerling, SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS EDITOR
7 February 2023 • 3:00pm

For decades, the gender of God has prompted debate within the Church, with many calling for male pronouns He and Him, as well as reference to Our Father, to be scrapped in favour of either gender neutral or female alternatives.

Now, in what would mark a departure from centuries of tradition, bishops are to launch a project "on gendered language" referencing God in church services later this year.

The move has been criticised by conservatives, who have warned that "male and female imagery is not interchangeable". However, liberal Christians have welcomed it, claiming that "a theological misreading of God as exclusively male is a driver of much continuing discrimination and sexism against women".

Worship of the Creator alone and Not His creation is the main message of Islam. ask God Almighty to guide you and have courage to accept the truth even if it's not packaged the way you want it

Islam looking more and more appealing with each passing day.

Gender-neutral God to be considered by Church of England

Move has been criticised by conservatives, who have warned that 'male and female imagery is not interchangeable'

By Gabriella Swerling, SOCIAL AND RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS EDITOR
7 February 2023 • 3:30pm

For decades, the gender of God has prompted debate within the Church, with many calling for male pronouns He and Him, as well as reference to Our Father, to be scrapped in favour of either gender neutral or female alternatives.

Now, in what would mark a departure from centuries of tradition, bishops are to launch a project "on gendered language" referencing God in church services later this year.

The move has been criticised by conservatives, who have warned that "male and female imagery is not interchangeable". However, liberal Christians have welcomed it, claiming that "a theological misreading of God as exclusively male is a driver of much continuing discrimination and sexism against women".

Worship of the Creator alone and Not His creation is the main message of Islam. Ask God Almighty to guide you and have courage to accept the truth even if it's not packaged the way you want it

Not quite. Bacchus will not play second fiddle to another religion. If they insist on a jihad, Bacchus will give it to them

I wouldn't count on it. He'll just start a new @Project_Veritas under a new name. Everyone who supported PV (including me) will follow him. Net result: we'll end up where we were before this.

"White privilege" is apparently when the most underperforming and in need of help students are discriminated against for being white.

Cambridge blocked white students from applying for course

University has since told The Telegraph that it reversed its position after concerns were raised

By Ewan Somerville
25 February 2023 • 4.00pm

The University of Cambridge barred white working-class students from one of its postgraduate courses, The Telegraph can reveal.

The university's School of Arts and Humanities internally promoted "an exciting new widening participation project" that will "give an opportunity for students from under-represented groups to experience postgraduate research at Cambridge".

Conservatism is the NEW counter culture.

Conservatism is the NEW punk rock.

Everyone RT this, it really annoys leftists

Can We Trust Republicans to Stand Up to Big Tech and Telecom Censorship? › American Greatness
The Supreme Court on Tuesday heard oral arguments in Gonzalez v. Google, the first time the justices have heard a case involving Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act. Whichever way the court

There is nothing the commies in the GOP can do about censorship by social media companies. They have a 1st Amendment right to censor whatever they want.

media.ca11.uscourts.gov/opinions.pub/f

We hold that it is substantially likely that social-media companies—even the biggest ones—are "private actors" whose rights the First Amendment protects, Manhattan Cmty., 139 S. Ct. at 1926, that their so-called "content-moderation" decisions constitute protected exercises of editorial judgment, and that the provisions of the new Florida law that restrict large platforms' ability to engage in content moderation unconstitutionally burden that prerogative. We further conclude that it is substantially likely that one of the law's particularly onerous disclosure provisions—which would require covered platforms to provide a "thorough rationale" for each and every content-moderation decision they make—violates the First Amendment. Accordingly, we hold that the compa-

Musk simply stated the obvious. Putin has made it clear for 20 years that the year round warm water ports in Crimea, that are home to the Russian Black Sea Fleet, is an indispensable asset in the Russian Nuclear Defense posture.

The media has suddenly lost all confidence in the sanctity of preferred pronouns.

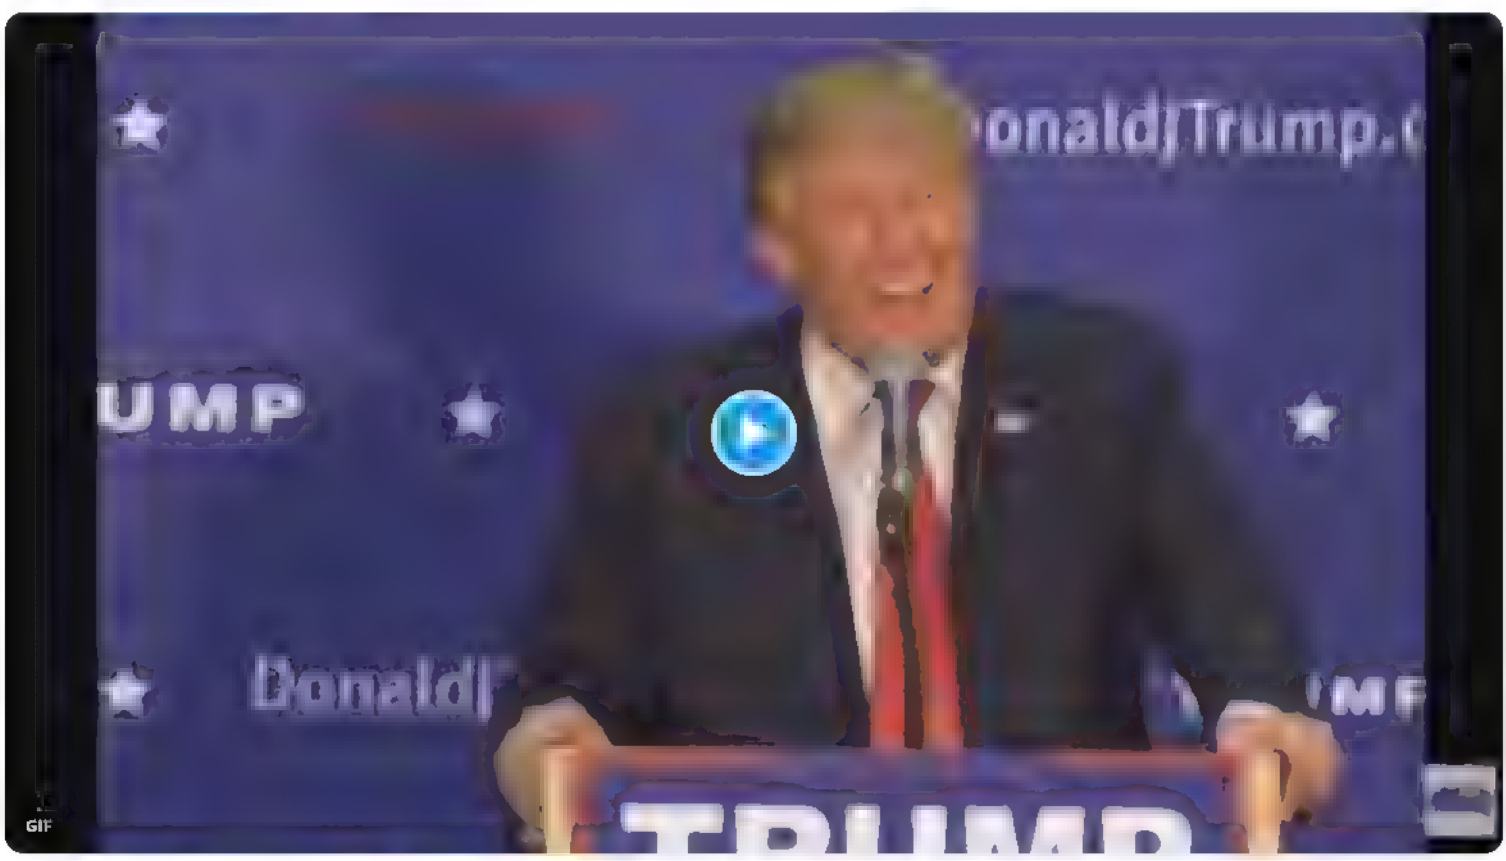
Confusion about gender identity of shooter

There is some confusion about the shooter's gender identity - with police earlier describing the attacker as a woman, and later saying that Audrey Hale identified as transgender.



A police spokesperson has since told Washington Post that Hale "is a biological woman who, on a social media profile, used male pronouns".

We're reaching out to the police in Nashville to see if we can get more clarity on this.

Media appears to have settled on the "no known motive" narrative after authorities said the manifesto wouldn t be released

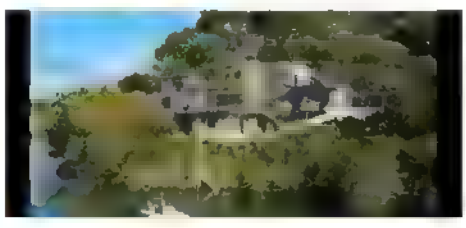
Fear pervades Tennessee's trans community amid focus on Nashville shooter's gender identity

"We were already fearing for our lives. Now, it's even worse," one transgender advocate in the state said.

March 29 2023 12 06 AM BST

By Matt Lavietes and Jo Yurcaba

Shortly after news broke Monday of a fatal shooting at a private Christian Nashville elementary school, police said the suspect was transgender. This detail, according to trans people in the state, has poured fuel on an already combustive environment that has led many of them to fear for their safety.



Police say Audrey Hale, who was killed by responding officers, fatally shot three 9 year old students and three staffers at The Covenant School. Though police have said there is no known motive for the shooting, some conservatives have blamed the shooting on the suspect's gender identity.

The New Right vs the Alt Right

Paul Joseph Watson

Just now

There are two 'Alt-Rights'.

One is more accurately described as the New Right. These people like to wear MAGA hats, create memes & have fun.

They include whites, blacks, Asians, latinos, gays and everyone else. These are the people who helped Trump win the election.

The other faction likes to fester in dark corners of sub-reddits and obsess about Jews, racial superiority and Adolf Hitler.

This is a tiny fringe minority. They had no impact on the election.

Guess which faction the media is giving all the attention to?

The Jew-Haters of Antifa

As reported in the French media, hundreds of Jewish graves in the Sarre-Union cemetery in Alsace were recently vandalized and defaced. Since the story first hit the news, it has been determined that the leader of the crew that desecrated the cemetery was a member of Antifa, the hard-Left "anti-fascists".

Marine Le Pen, the leader of Front National, made a few remarks about what happened in Sarre-Union. Many thanks to Vlad Tepes for subtitling this video:

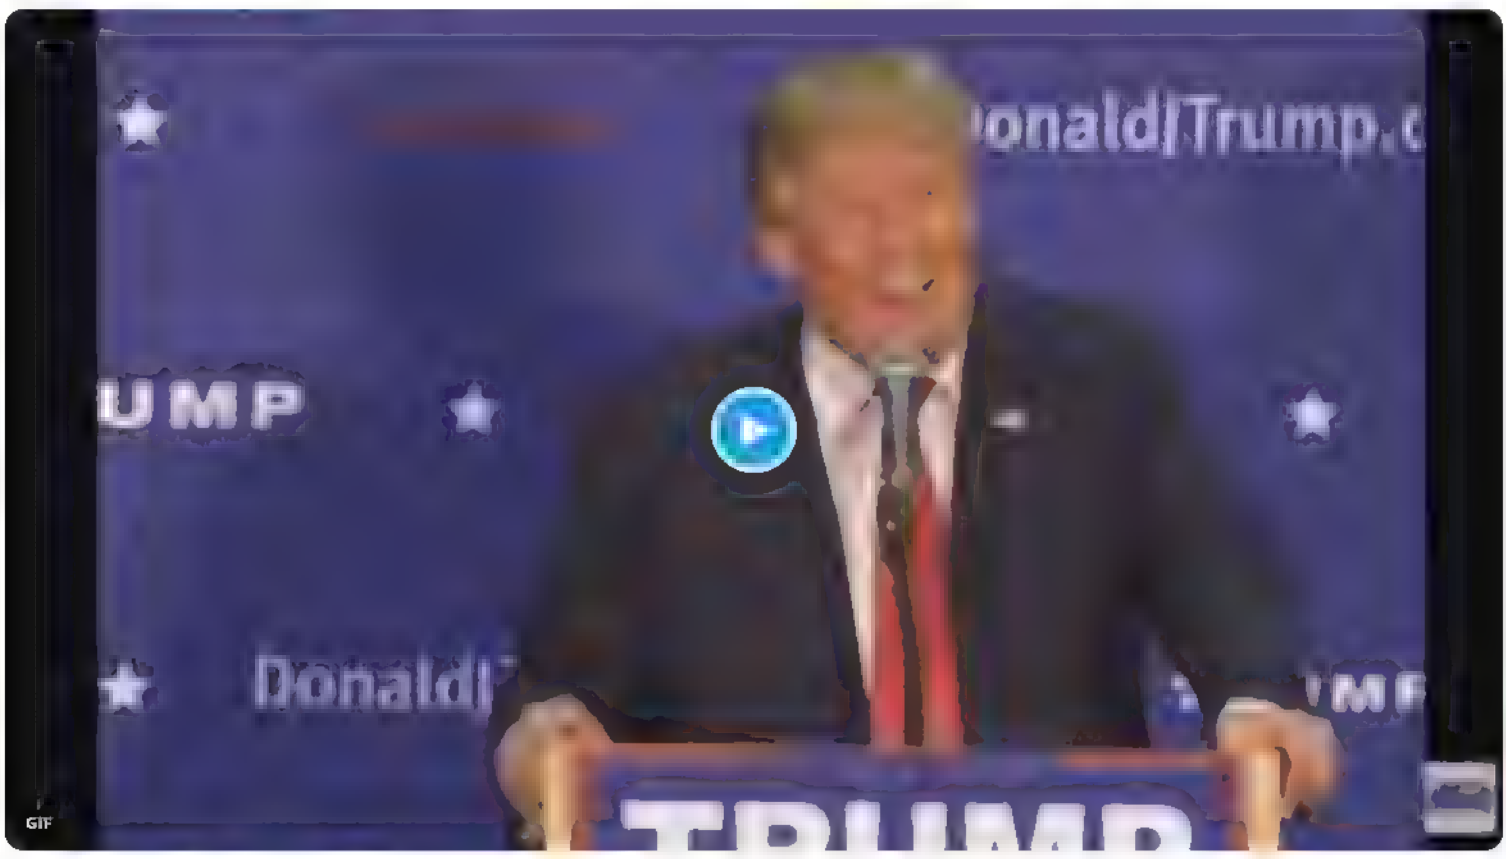
Confusion about gender identity of shooter

There is some confusion about the shooter's gender identity - with police earlier describing the attacker as a woman, and later saying that Audrey Hale identified as transgender.



A police spokesperson has since told Washington Post that Hale "is a biological woman who, on a social media profile, used male pronouns".

We're reaching out to the police in Nashville to see if we can get more clarity on this.

Paul Joseph Watson

Just now

There are two 'Alt-Rights'.

One is more accurately described as the New Right. These people like to wear MAGA hats, create memes & have fun.

They include whites, blacks, Asians, latinos, gays and everyone else. These are the people who helped Trump win the election.

The other faction likes to fester in dark corners of sub-reddits and obsess about Jews, racial superiority and Adolf Hitler.

This is a tiny fringe minority. They had no impact on the election.

Guess which faction the media is giving all the attention to?

The New Right vs the Alt Right.

Paul Joseph Watson
Just now

There are two 'Alt-Rights'.

One is more accurately described as the New Right. These people like to wear MAGA hats, create memes & have fun.

They include whites, blacks, Asians, latinos, gays and everyone else. These are the people who helped Trump win the election.

The other faction likes to fester in dark corners of sub-reddits and obsess about Jews, racial superiority and Adolf Hitler.

This is a tiny fringe minority. They had no impact on the election.

Guess which faction the media is giving all the attention to?

Paul Joseph Watson @PrisonPlanet

The latter faction are incredibly obsessed with identity politics. They are basically right wing SJWs.

The New Right vs the Alt Right.

Paul Joseph Watson
Just now

There are two 'Alt-Rights'.

One is more accurately described as the New Right. These people like to wear MAGA hats, create memes & have fun.

They include whites, blacks, Asians, latinos, gays and everyone else. These are the people who helped Trump win the election.

The other faction likes to fester in dark corners of sub-reddits and obsess about Jews, racial superiority and Adolf Hitler.

This is a tiny fringe minority. They had no impact on the election.

Guess which faction the media is giving all the attention to?

Correct! Anyone not for Trump is a SJW to them. Apparently using tact when telling truth the left's shut tuppery

Paul Joseph Watson
Just now

There are two 'Alt-Rights'.

One is more accurately described as the New Right. These people like to wear MAGA hats, create memes & have fun.

They include whites, blacks, Asians, latinos, gays and everyone else. These are the people who helped Trump win the election.

The other faction likes to fester in dark corners of sub-reddits and obsess about Jews, racial superiority and Adolf Hitler.

This is a tiny fringe minority. They had no impact on the election.

Guess which faction the media is giving all the attention to?

@PrisonPlanet Paul Joseph Watson
The latter faction are incredibly obsessed with identity politics. They are basically right wing SJWs.

"Misogyny" or relentless bad plastic surgery? You be the judge

Madonna FIRES BACK at comments over Grammy appearance and blames a 'long lens camera' for 'distorting' her changing face: 'Once again I am caught in the glare of ageism and misogyny'

That's where the goal post has been moved. Just like gas prices in USA.

It was $2 a gallon, jumped to $4 dollars. They drop it to $3, everyone accepts it.

The other difference is that neo-Nazi beliefs have nothing to do with conservatism, while Antifa are espousing core "progressive" beliefs.

Anti Semitism is Anti Semitism

The Jew-Haters of Antifa

As reported in the French media, hundreds of Jewish graves in the Sarre-Union cemetery in Alsace were recently vandalized and defaced. Since the story first hit the news, it has been determined that the leader of the crew that desecrated the cemetery was a member of Antifa, the hard-Left "anti-fascists".

Marine Le Pen, the leader of Front National, made a few remarks about what happened in Sarre-Union. Many thanks to Vlad Tepes for subtitling this video:

Conservatives object in both cases to different strands of left-sm. Nazis/Antifa both anti semites but disagree about who should rule

The media has suddenly lost all confidence in the sanctity of preferred pronouns.

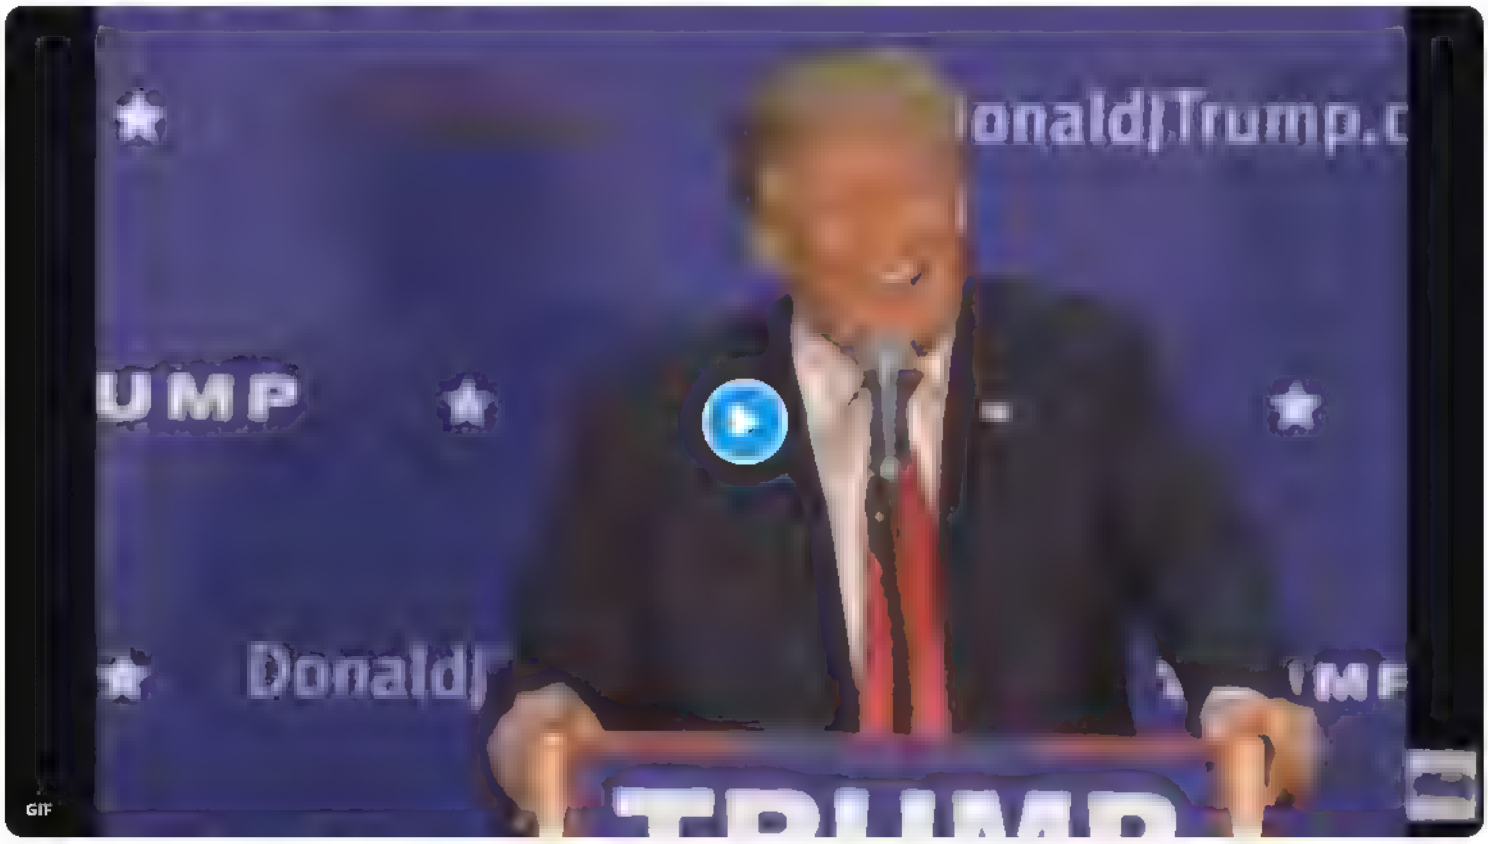
Confusion about gender identity of shooter

There is some confusion about the shooter's gender identity - with police earlier describing the attacker as a woman, and later saying that Audrey Hale identified as transgender.



A police spokesperson has since told Washington Post that Hale "is a biological woman who, on a social media profile, used male pronouns".

We're reaching out to the police in Nashville to see if we can get more clarity on this.

Bingo. I refer to this individual as the Techno Messiah. It's the "World Teacher" aka "Lord Maitreya" teaching global religion under global government. AI will be used to put this individual into power. Look into Benjamin Creme's Share International organization

What's it matter? @BrianHa62555742 · 6h
Benjamin Creme was a spokesman who spoke to the UN and other world leaders about the World Teacher, Lord Maitreya. Lucis Trust and World Goodwill, the Luciferin cult that is involved with the United Nations is likely involved as well

Call me Dave @fnqadp · 6h
I can confirm Musk's "AI God" points is correct. Having talked to some of those guys back around 2015. I know at least some of the folks over there are quite properly mystical about AI. They are on a religious quest

They reminded me of the Technocenter in Jodorowsky/Moebius' Show more

Old joke about agnostic technologists building artificial super intelligence to find out if there's a God.

They finally finish & ask the question.

Paul Joseph Watson
Just now

There are two 'Alt-Rights'.

One is more accurately described as the New Right. These people like to wear MAGA hats, create memes & have fun.

They include whites, blacks, Asians, latinos, gays and everyone else. These are the people who helped Trump win the election.

The other faction likes to fester in dark corners of sub-reddits and obsess about Jews, racial superiority and Adolf Hitler.

This is a tiny fringe minority. They had no impact on the election.

Guess which faction the media is giving all the attention to?

@ChrollPeter like the term "new right." I have no idea what alt right is. Will not accept that moniker

Correct! Anyone not for Trump is a SJW to them. Apparently using tact when telling truth = the left's shut-uppery

Перекласти твіт

Paul Joseph Watson

Just now

There are two 'Alt-Rights'.

One is more accurately described as the New Right. These people like to wear MAGA hats, create memes & have fun.

They include whites, blacks, Asians, latinos, gays and everyone else. These are the people who helped Trump win the election.

The other faction likes to fester in dark corners of sub-reddits and obsess about Jews, racial superiority and Adolf Hitler.

This is a tiny fringe minority. They had no impact on the election.

Guess which faction the media is giving all the attention to?

The latter faction are incredibly obsessed with identity politics. They are basically right wing SJWs.

Those two categories comprise the extremes. The other 80% will go wherever Trump leads them

Przetłumacz Tweeta

Paul Joseph Watson

Just now

There are two 'Alt-Rights'.

One is more accurately described as the New Right. These people like to wear MAGA hats, create memes & have fun.

They include whites, blacks, Asians, latinos, gays and everyone else. These are the people who helped Trump win the election.

The other faction likes to fester in dark corners of sub-reddits and obsess about Jews, racial superiority and Adolf Hitler.

This is a tiny fringe minority. They had no impact on the election.

Guess which faction the media is giving all the attention to?

The latter faction are incredibly obsessed with identity politics. They are basically right wing SJWs.

Remember her "Like a Prayer" song?
I back when people were more naive I tried to point out that it's not a "spiritual song" (which many believed it to be) so many things in that video that requires quite an extensive knowledge in pagan philosophies to be so blasphemous

I watch Gutfeld regularly because he has great writers. You can tell when a sub hosts the show. Even if their delivery is no good, the material carries them.

His name is his political philosophy, spelled backwards.

John Cleese is a racist.

I mean, he lives in the Caribbean surrounded by black people whom he describes as "superb" & "kind"

But left wing celebrities who live in the whitest areas of the UK said he was a racist so it must be true, right?

Hillary Clinton says Europe needs to curb mass migration Yes, Hillary Clinton

Europe must get a handle on immigration to combat a growing threat from rightwing populists, Hillary Clinton has said, calling on the continent's leaders to send out a stronger signal showing they are "not going to be able to continue provide refuge and support".

In an interview with the Guardian, the former Democratic presidential candidate praised the generosity shown by the German chancellor, Angela Merkel, but suggested immigration was inflaming voters and contributed to the election of Donald Trump and Britain's vote to leave the EU.

"I think Europe needs to get a handle on migration because that is what lit the flame," Clinton said, speaking as part of a series of interviews with senior centrist political figures about the rise of populists, particularly on the right, in Europe and the Americas.

"I admire the very generous and compassionate approaches that were taken particularly by leaders like Angela Merkel, but I think it is fair to say Europe has done its part, and must send a very clear message - 'we are not going to be able to continue provide refuge and support' - because if we don't deal with the migration issue it will continue to roil the body politic."

The funniest thing this week has been to witness the same people who literally want to ban anyone with a different opinion simultaneously fuming over 'Internet Freedom'.

If you're pro-censorship, you can't also be pro "Internet Freedom," you utter clowns.

How does any edition of the NYT still have 22 pages?. Who is reading that shit?

One wonders if a white supremacist (whether deliberately or not) had ploughed into a BLM parade that the New York Times would put the report on page 22.

Source: Data compiled by CSIS Transnational Threats Project.
Note: Attacks and plots perpetrated by individuals with other motives have been excluded from this figure for simplicity. There were six such events in the data set: one in 1994, three in 2003, one in 2005, and one in 2018. Data from 2020 is excluded from this figure because not enough time has elapsed to draw conclusions about annual trends.

It's almost as if crimes contributing to an ongoing and national trend are more likely to be publicized than isolated incidents of criminality

Source: Data compiled by CSIS Transnational Threats Project

Note: Attacks and plots perpetrated by individuals with other motives have been excluded from this figure for simplicity. There were six such events in the data set: one in 1994, three in 2003, one in 2005, and one in 2018. Data from 2020 is excluded from this figure because not enough time has elapsed to draw conclusions about annual trends.

Social justice. Just say no, kids

CULTURAL MARXISM

(BEFORE AND AFTER SOCIAL STUDIES)

The average millenial comes out of college looking like this, without any meaningful skill and thousands of dollars in debt.

They'll blame old white men for not being able to find a job and capitalism for being bankrupt. This is Cultural Marxism in action.

If there was ever any doubt that Marvel has totally lost the plot, it goes out of the window with the announcement that a new comic series will focus on a pair of twins who identify as 'non binary' and are named 'Snowflake' and 'Safespace'.

It's almost as if crimes contributing to an ongoing and national trend are more likely to be publicized than isolated incidents of criminality

Source: Data compiled by CSIS Transnational Threats Project
Note: Attacks and plots perpetrated by individuals with other motives have been excluded from this figure for simplicity. There were six such events in the data set: one in 1994, three in 2003, one in 2005, and one in 2018. Data from 2020 is excluded from this figure because not enough time has elapsed to draw conclusions about annual trends.

This is a attempt to normalize black racism in the public square by instituting segregated spaces by race. Is no group in the UK prepared to take them on, legally and politically?

All we have so far regarding a motive for the Nottingham attack is "mental health problems."

Conveniently avoiding discussion of the elephant in the room yet again

Any society gets the govt they deserve. Like it or not, accept it or not, doesn't matter.
Of course you could ramp it up to a real democracy, if that's what you deserve. demvision.wordpress.com
Noiseless. 24/7 responsible, streamlined, accurate (and a nightmare for politicians)

I don't understand why everyone didn't just do what I did and completely ignore any and all lockdown mandates
Traveled the entire U S that year nobody said fsck all to me about it
If a park had a sign that it was "closed" due to COVID, just ignored it and went on in

Remember when the hospitals were full of people dying of COVID, yet the nurses still had time to plan and perform TikTok dance routines, and then we were all told to stand outside our front doors once a week applauding them while banging pots and pans?

That wasn't weird.

Man I was born in the wrong era, think of all the free steak I could have gotten if just identified as a velociraptor
I feel like I need steak reparations now. No one ever validated my identity as a velociraptor and I want compensation in free steak.

Leftist postmodernism teaches that there is no objective reality, so these marxist teachers tell kids that whatever they imagine is true

Leftists do this because it makes it easier for them to LIE, since people get conditioned to never question anything. Witness trans ideology

Whether you agree with them or not, no one can deny that in western countries, the unvaxxed and anti lockdown protesters are now an oppressed minority

Dehumanized by the media, violently persecuted by the state

Hi @jack your website has been ruined by brigades of professionally offended mobs who abuse the platform to silence anyone they disagree with.

Will you act to remedy this, or shall half of us just leave now and let you have your crumbling, echo chamber as it turns to dust?

Paul Joseph Watson @PrisonPlanet · Aug 14, 2018

Alex Jones has been suspended by Twitter for 7 days for a video talking about social media censorship. Truly, monumentally, beyond stupid.

On the same day that the Infowars website was brought down by a cyber attack.

Will this madness ever end?

We've temporarily limited some of your account features

What happened?
We have determined that this account violated the Twitter Rules. Specifically, for:

1. Violating our rules against abusive behavior.
   You may not engage in the targeted harassment of someone, or incite other people to do so. We consider abusive behavior an attempt to harass, intimidate, or silence someone else's voice.
